Re: Labour Court Recommendation 20943 – Central Mental Hospital.

Dear Mr Hughes.

I refer to our conversation of the 8th May in relation to the above. As confirmed we are currently engaged in examining, in detail, each individual case, in order to correctly work out the liability, taking in to account elements which arose because of changes, which were outside of the revisions at the Central Mental Hospital.

As indicated, it is our intention to set out some examples, and we confirmed we would endeavour to do so by the end of this week, if possible. These are currently being collated to a manner which can be shared, but will have to be quality assured, to ensure they are an accurate reflection and that all matters have been taken in to consideration.

We will provide you with this information, as soon as it is to hand.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Byrne
